Homeschool Singapore

The Speakers

Jessica Shepherd

Raised on a small farm and kiwifruit orchard in New Zealand, Jessica moved to Singapore in 2011 and has been homeschooled since young. When she's not writing, speaking, emailing, coaching, singing or playing her sadly out of tune piano, she enjoys gaming or binge watching netflix shows—especially if snacks are involved.

Owen Chai

Owen has been homeschooled for most of his life along with two younger brothers, and is currently in his second last year of high school. One of his favourite pastimes is telling friends he's busy and can't go out with them, when he's in fact at home wasting time drawing.

Dorothea Wong

Having once been in Singapore's public schooling system as well as having undergone homeschooling, you can say that Dorothea had the best of both worlds. Her desire is to see youths in Singapore embrace their giftings and create social impact beyond the nation's shore.

Magdalene Hoy

As someone who comes from a big family and has four younger siblings, Magdalene has a soft spot for children. During her free time, you can find her enjoying a run at the park or working on watercolor and brush lettering.

The Speakers

Elizabeth Koh

Liz is a Singaporean homeschooler with a heart for the community. With the power of the pen, she believes that everyone can impact the world for better. Her strengths range from public speaking, creative writing, graphic design, and event planning to recognising different K-Pop songs.

Caleb Tupili

Amusing stall-owners with his conversational grip on Chinese never grows old! A fun-loving 16 year old in general, Caleb likes to take life one step at a time. Born and raised in a Christian family, he is deeply involved in youth events with his church and other public organizations.

Christopher Hitchens

Born in Australia, Christopher has lived in Singapore for the last four years. He is an avid reader and consumer of music.
